- Abstract: What is meant by the fundamentalist extraction of the telecom credit card is to clarify and show the true nature of this card, especially since no one knows of this card except that he is obligated to purchase it, until it has become a current reality that has been imposed in our daily lives without a clear statement to it by Sharia. And the legal explanation of it is not the actual knowledge of the manifest, but rather it is the manifestation. If the manifestation is achieved, no doubt or persistence remains with him, and this can only be achieved by the title of this research to be more comprehensive, especially since the principles deal with the general rules of the methods of jurisprudence and its deductions, and thus this study can be considered as a basis And a barometer for other digital transactions or e-commerce. As for display, it can be achieved by studying the balance card through three concepts: benefit, money, and financial quality. In our study will not deviate from these concepts.
- Keywords: financial quality, manifestation, Sharia
