

Electronic Media and Its Role in Shaping the Attitudes of The Iraqi Public Towards Security.

- Author(s): Wahab Jabbar Sabit ,Jassim Tarish
- Abstract: The research dealt with the study (the role of social networking sites in shaping the attitudes of the Iraqi public towards the security man) by studying these sites and defining them as digital media and communication via the Internet, they have become more prevalent, especially in the lives of young people, they communicate and share text with their friends through their cell phones, and the Internet, social networking sites, and video sharing sites, referring to the most important issues that social networks have affected.
- Keywords: Digital media and Communication, young people, Social networking sites, and Video sharing sites