

Execution of Foreign Judgments in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the Role of the Will in it.

- Author(s): Ibrahim bin Mahdi bin Ibrahim Al-Asloumi Al-Yami
- Abstract: The first topic: The right holder to implement the foreign judgment and the limited role of the will. The first requirement: The restrictions on the will of the execution applicant in light of the condition banning the jurisdiction. The second requirement: The legality of the condition banning the jurisdiction and its impact on the implementation of the foreign judgment. The second topic: The objective controls for monitoring the implementation of foreign judgments in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The first requirement: The statutory controls related to the jurisdiction to enforce foreign judgments in the Kingdom. The second requirement: the controls related to the procedures for executing the foreign judgment.
- Keywords: Foreign judgment, Jurisdiction