

Indication of the Regular Structure of the Contexts Of Victory in The Qur'anic Expression.

- Author(s): Abd- Gawaad Abd Al-Hassan Ali Al-Baydhani
- Abstract: Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds, and blessings and peace be upon the Master of the Messengers, and his chosen companions; As for what follows: Allah wisdom and will necessitated that truth and falsehood struggle, so there is no prophet among the prophets except that his people opposed him and disputed him, and they showed him their hostility, but Allah Almighty was in every round of the conflict to support his messengers and his righteous guardians, and this struggle is eternal, trading the struggle of goodness and evil, Although Islam is the religion of peace, the Noble Qur'an has described many of the incidents of war that took place between Muslims and polytheists, and clarified in many places the contents of victory, its causes and obligations, and its results. Or in other words indicating the meaning of victory, and the purpose of that was to clarify the general implications of victory, which were clarified by the glorious Qur'anic text. As for the most important results that the researcher reached, it is a discussion of the fallacies and erroneous ideas that many people circulate about victory, in which there is doubt, astonishment and disappointment, and Allah is the guardian of success.
- Keywords: astonishment, disappointment, righteous guardians