

The formal principle of the editors and contracts electronic (Comparative study).

- Author(s): Ayoob Yousif Salim
- Abstract: This study will examine the law regulating e-commerce from a perspective in contrast to international trends and ecommerce law from the perspective of the United States. The research investigates various aspects of contract formation such as time and place, validity of electronic agreements, electronic signatures, attribution of electronic data messages and signatures, automated transaction as well as select aspects of e-jurisdiction from a South African and United States viewpoint.
- Keywords: Legislative, Editors, Electronic