

Olympic Education in The System of Kazakhstan Sport and Physical Culture Specialists Training.

- Author(s): Bakhtiyarova Sayagul ,Ispulova Roza ,Gabdrakhmannova Shynar ,Madenova Lazzat ,Gabitov Aidarbek
- Abstract: The article deals with the issues of improving educational work with future teachers of physical culture based on Olympic education. A system of Olympic education for future physical education teachers has been developed, which includes a wide range of different forms and methods of work. The content of Olympic education and the results of its influence on their moral culture are considered. The possibility of applying the ideals and principles of Olympism in the moral education of students is shown. Olympic education is presented as a process of introducing students to the ideals and values of Olympism, and Olympic lessons are considered as the main means of forming the moral culture of students. The positive results of the use of Olympic education in the process of educational and physical culture and sports activities of students are presented. The article defines the place of Olympic values in the content of axiological education and the conditions for the implementation of the organization of axiological education of students.
- Keywords: educational, Olympic, content, possibility, forming, transcription, axiological, organization.