

Creativity and Personality Patterns and their Impact on the Attitude towards Work Using the Vienna Test System for the College of Physical Education and Sports Sciences - Al-Qadissiya University.

- Author(s): Mohammed Hatem Abdul Zahra ,Haidar Mahdi Salman ,Haider Zaghair Alwan
- Abstract: The measure of attitudes is one of the important methods that indicate the readiness of the individual and his satisfaction with the profession of his choice and this gives us a clearer picture of the importance of measuring attitudes among the educational staff (Al-Tai, 2003) and hence the importance of research in identifying the level of creativity and personal patterns of the professors of the College of Physical Education Sports Science - Al-Qadissiya University and its impact on the trend towards action using the Vienna Test system.
- Keywords: Al-Qadissiya University, Vienna Test system, Physical Education